Contribution Statement

This project was completed through the equal and shared contribution of all team members. Each member participated in the research, design, implementation, testing, documentation, and review of the project deliverables. The workload was distributed fairly among the team, and all members contributed to the completion of the Phase 2 requirements, including the hardware schematic, PCB layout, Gerber preparation, manufacturer preview, and project documentation.

Acknowledgment

All team members confirm that the submitted work represents a collaborative effort and that each member contributed equally to the final project outcome.
